NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Authors should submit a letter requesting review, confirming that their article is original work, does not violate any contractual agreement and has not been published or is not under consideration for publication elsewhere. A copyright agreement must also be signed and returned to the journal editor.

Copyright

The copyright covers the exclusive right to reproduce and distribute the article in any medium, including reprints, photographic reproductions, microfilm, electronic reproductions or any other reproduction of a similar nature and translations. Permission to publish illustrations must be obtained by the author before submission and any acknowledgements should be included in the captions.

Language of publication

Only articles written in English, French or Portuguese will be accepted for possible publication.

Presentation

Authors should submit three hard copies of their article on A4 paper, together with an electronic file (MS Word format). Please ensure that the electronic file is exactly the same version as the hard copy, and that they are the latest and final version. This is essential both for initial submission and if you are asked to revise and resubmit. The article should be typed in Times New Roman in 11-point font size, in double-spacing (including all notes and references), on one side of the paper only.

The full title of the article, not exceeding 45 characters, should be supplied on the title page. The length of an article should not be longer than 5 000 words, research notes 2 000 words and book reviews 500 words. (Book reviews and review articles are by invitation only.) A structured abstract of 200 words in length, covering the main factual points and statement of objective or problem, method, results and conclusions, should accompany an article. This abstract must be translated into English and/or French and/or Portuguese as may be applicable. Include a list of at least six keywords in alphabetical order for abstracting and indexing services.

Do not attempt layout. All notes should be kept to a minimum and appear at the end of the article before the list of references.

Figures and tables should not be embedded in the text, but be saved as separate files at the end of each article with their position clearly marked in the text. Indicate clearly in which format they were generated. The illustrations should be professionally prepared and submitted in a form suitable for reproduction (i.e., camera-ready copy or in digital form). Digital illustrations should be in native format or WMF if created in Windows. Files saved as PS, eps, gif and tiff may also be used; but please note that it may not be possible to modify these. Rough drawings instead of finished artwork may be forwarded. The author will be charged for preparation of final artwork. Please supply typed captions including sources and acknowledgements. The captions should be typed on a separate page at the end of the manuscript and not included in the text or under the illustrations. All illustrations and tables should be numbered using numerals, for example, Figure 1, Figure 2, or Table 1, Table 2. In order of appearance. Each figure should be lightly marked on the back in pencil with its appropriate number, together with the names of the author(s) and the title of the article. Only horizontal lines should be used in tables, one above and below column headings and one at the table foot. The use of abbreviations is discouraged. Only internationally recognised abbreviations such as HIV/AIDS should be used. Only System International (SI) units should be used.

Review

All articles shall be critically reviewed by at least two referees.

Authors

Please supply short biographical details of each author on the title page, as well as the surname, initials, highest qualifications, affiliation, telephone and facsimile numbers, e-mail address, mailing address and country of each corresponding author at the time of the work.

Authorship credit

Individual authorship credit entails: contribution to the conception and design of the piece of work, or to analysis and interpretation of data; contribution to the drafting or revision of the article; and approval of the version finally published. Participation in the acquisition of funding or data collection alone does not merit authorship credit.

REFERENCES

The Abbreviated Harvard System of Reference (author--date) should be used (e.g. Smith 1992:20 in text. In list of references cite the author's surname, followed by a comma, then the initial(s) of the author with full stops after each initial. This is followed by the year of publication, e.g. Jones, S.W. 1997. If there is more than one reference per year from the same author, distinguish between them with an alphabetic letter, e.g. 1999a, 1999b.

A detailed list of references in alphabetic order must be supplied on a separate page; it should include every work cited in the text. Ensure that dates, spelling and titles used in the text are accurate and consistent with those listed in the references.

Books and journal titles should be written out in full. Names of journals are written in italics or underlined.
